I. AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

The Aizawl Theological College seeks to nurture spiritually grounded, intellectually responsible, academically competent, and minsterially effective servants of Christ for the Church and society. In keeping with its motto, "Service to God and Humankind," and in accordance with the academic standards of the Senate of Serampore College, the College aims to prepare men and women for various forms of Christian ministry, especially within the Mizo churches and in broader ecclesial, social, and multicultural contexts.

The College therfore seeks to:

1. Deepen Christian faith and discipleship by strengthening students' personal comitment to Christ, nurturing spiritual maturity, and enabling them to discern God's will and calling for their lives.

2. Provide sound biblical and theological knowledge through the study of Scripture, Christian doctrine, biblical interpretation, practial theology, missiology, church history, and the disciplines of Christian life and ministry.

3. Cultivate critical and contextual theological reflection so that students are equipped to engage contemporary issues, ethical challenges, prophetic concerns, and the social implications of the Christian faith with intellectual responsibility and pastoral sensitivity.

4. Equip students for effective ministry by helping them discern and develop their ministerial gifts, vocational calling, leadership abilities, and practical skills for service as pastors, missionaries, teachers. counsellors, and other forms of Christian ministry.

5. Promote academic excellence and ministerial integrity by integrating rigorous theological study with spiritual formation, ecclesial commitment, and responsible engagement with the Church and society.

6. Prepare students for mission in a pluralistic world by developing an awaremness of major world religions, cultural traditions, contemporary social trends, and the challenges of ministry in multicultural and multi-religious contexts.

7. Contribute to the edification of the Church and society through the formation of ordained and lay leaders, theological education, pastoral service, mission engagement, and other ministries that embody faithful service to God, humankind and the rest of the creation.

II. HISTORY

Aizawl Theological College traces its origins to 1907, when Welsh Calvinistic Methodist missionaries, later known as the Welsh Presbyterian Mission, established a small theological school in Aizawl to train Mizo Christians for evangelism, pastoral ministry, and the wider service of the Church. The initiative was led by Rev. D.E.Jones, popularly known among the Mizos as Pu Zosaphluia, a pioneer missionary of the Presbyterian Church of Wales. In its early stage, the school was strengthened by trained Mizo pastors such as Rev. Chhuahkhama, Rev. Liangkhaia and Rev. Saiaithanga, whose contributions were instrumental in the development of theological education among the Mizos.

In 1924, the school was relocated from Aizawl to Durtlang, on the present site of the Synod Hospital, under the care of Rev. F.J.Sandy and several Mizo teachers. Following Rev.

Sandy's sudden death, the school returned to Aizawl in 1927 under the supervision of Rev. E.L.Mendus. Owing to financial constraints and other historical circumstances, the school was temporarily closed in 1937. However, after the Second World War and India's Independence, the need for theological education became increasingly evident. In 1951, the Assembly of the Mizoram Presbyterian Church resolved to reopen the institution, with Rev. J.M. Lloyd as its Principal.

After acquring the site at Mission Vengthlang, Aizawl, the College was formally established on the site in 1964. In the following year, 1965, it was granted affiliation by the Senate of Serampore College at the Licentiate in Theology (L.Th) level, with Mizo as the medium of instruction. Rev. J.M. Lloyd was succeeded by Rev. C. Pazawna, the first Mizo Principal of the College. His long tenure marked an important period of academic consolidation and institutional growth. In 1971, the College was upgraded to the Bachelor of Theology (B.Th) level by the Senate of Serampore College, and English became the medium of instruction for the degree programme. These developments coincided with a significant period in Mizoram's political history, as the region became a Union Territory in 1972 and later a full-fledged State in 1987.

During the 1970s and 1980s, the College continued to strengthen its B.Th programme, lay theological education, and missionary training. In 1983, the Mizoram Presbyterian Church Synod resolved to upgrade the College to the Bachelor of Divinity (B.D.) level in response to the growing ministerial, missionary, and theological needs of the Church. Since the Mission Vengthlang campus could no longer accomodate further expansion, a new 21.6-acres site was acquired at Durtlang Leitan, north of Aizawl. Preparations for the new campus progressed with the support of the Synod, local congregations and well-wishers. The Gospel Centenary Building, now the College's main academic building, was inaugurated by former Principal Rev. J.M. Lloyd on 11th January 1994 during the Gospel Centenary year in Mizoram.

In 1994, the Senate of Serampore College granted ATC provisonal affiliation to offer the B.D. programme. The B.D. Orientation Course began in October 1994 with 26 students, marking a new phase in the academic development of the College. In June 1998, the Academic Council of the Senate of Serampore College granted the College full affiliation as a BD institution. The B.Th. programme was subsequently phased out in 2003, making B.D. programme ATC's principal programme for ministerial formation.

The College later expanded its academic mission by introducing postgraduate and doctoral theological education. The Master of Theology (M.Th) programme was introduced in stages: Christian Theology in 2002; New Testament and Missiology in 2007; History of Christianity in 2009; Old Testament and Religions in 2011; and Pastoral Counselling in 2018. The Doctor of Theology (D.Th) programme was inaugurated in Christian Theology in 2013, followed by New Testament and Missiology in 2014. In 2022, the programme was further expanded to include Old Testament, Christian Ministry (with specialization in Counselling), and History of Christianity.

In addition to its residential programmes, the College serves as a recognized local centre of the Senate of Serampore College for the Bachelor of Christian Studies (B.C.S.), Diploma in Christian Studies (Dip.C.S), and Doctor of Ministry (D.Min) programmes. The BCS and Dip.CS programmes are offered in both Mizo and English.

Throughout its history, the College has continued to grow in its academic programmes, institutional life, and service to the Church. Today, Aizawl Theological College stands as one of the leading ecumenical theological institutions in Northeast India. Although founded, sustained, and governed by the Mizoram Prebyterian Church through the Synod Theological Education Board, it serves men and women from various Protestant churches across Mizoram, Northeast India, other parts of India and the neigbouring regions. Its continuing mission is to form theologically mature, spiritually grounded, and ministerially competent servants of Christ for the Church, theological education, mission, counselling, and society.

Contact and Communication: The campus of Aizawl Theological College is situated on a hill to the north of Aizawl, the capital of Mizoram. Aizawl is accessible by road, air, and train services.

VIII. ACADEMIC PROGRAMME

A. RESIDENTIAL COURSE

1. Bachelor of Divinity (B.D):

The Bachelor of Divinity (B.D.) is a three-year residential degree programme. Although designated as a bachelor's degree, it is academically equivalent to a master's level programme and is intended for candidates who have already completed an undergraduate degree. Students at the B.D. level are introduced to the foundations of theology as well as advanced theological studies at a later stage.

Graduates with a B.Th or B.Miss. degree who have successfully completed all the required subjects are eligible for admission directly into the second year of the B.D. programme. Additionally, applicants who have not previously completed Preliminary Greek and Preliminary Hebrew shall be required to pass these subjects as compulsory College-examined papers. Graduates from institutions accredited by the Asia Theological Association (ATA) are required to pass the B.D. Qualifying Examination of the Senate of Serampore College before admission to the B.D. programme.

Candidates selected for the B.D. programme will attend the Orientation Course from October- April.

2. Master of Theology (M.Th):

The minimum duration of the Master of Theology (M.Th.) programme is two academic years. Candidates who meet the requirements of the Senate of Serampore College are eligible to undertake M.T.h studies. The College currently offers M.Th. programmes in seven departments - Old Testament, New Testament, Christian Theology, History of Christianity, Missilogy, Religions and Counselling.

3. Doctor of Theology (D.Th.):

The Doctor of Theology (D.Th.) is a minimum three-year residential programme. Candidates holding a Senate of Serampore M.Th. degree with a minimum of Grade B, or its equivalent, are eligible to undertake this programme. The College currently offers D.Th. programme in six dpeartments - Old Testament, New Testament, Christian Theology, History of Christianity, Missiology and Counselling.

B. NON-RESIDENTIAL COURSE

1. Diploma in Christian Studies (Dip.C.S.):

Candidates seeking admission to the Diploma in Christian Studies (Dip.C.S.) must pass 10+2 or an equivalent qualification. Candidates may choose either English or Mizo medium of instruction. The minimum duration of the programme is two years.

2. Bachelor of Christian Studies (B.C.S.):

Candidates seeking admission to the Bachelor of Christian Studies (B.C.S.) shall hold a B.Th., B.A., or an equivalent qualification. Those who have passed the Mature Candidates' Entrance Examination are also eligible to apply. Candidates may choose either English or Mizo medium of instruction. The minimum duration of the course is four years.

Every academic year the College organizes contact seminars for Dip.C.S. and B.C.S. students.

3. Doctor of Ministry (DMin):

Aizawl Theological College is one of the examination centres for the Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) programme of the Senate of Serampore College.

C. OTHER ACADEMIC PROGRAMMES:

1. Lay Theological Education (LTE) is an ongoing programme of the College through which the Mobile Theological School and Bible Correspondence programmes are conducted.

2. Church Music is another important course offered by the College.

3. The Calvin Study Centre (C.S.C.) is an integral part of the College. The Centre organises seminars and provides research facilities on the life, thought, and theological tradition of John Calvin.

IX. ACADEMIC SESSION

The College follows semester system for B.D. and M.Th. programmes. The First Semester begins in June and ends in September. The Second Semester begins in October and ends in April. Examinations are conducted at the end of each Semester.

X. GRADING SYSTEM

XI. FIELD EDUCATION

Field Education programme is an integral part of theological education offered in ATC. The College follows the guidelines of the Senate of Serampore College in organizing the Field Education programme. Field Education Manual is prepared to suit the particular needs of the Church and community in Mizoram. BD students are expected to regularly attend Field Education programme without which they will not be awarded their degrees. M.Th II students, who finished their BD studies in other theological colleges, and who are members of the Mizoram Presbyterian Church are also given special assignment of Church visits on Sunday so as to orient them to the life and ministry of their own local Church community.

There are two types of Field Education programme – concurrent and intensive. Concurrent Field Education programme includes regular Sunday church visit, attending Presbytery meetings and practical exposure in relation to some of the courses of study, such as visit to hospice and religious places of different religions. Intensive Field Education includes the programmes conducted during semester break and winter vacation, such as working with NGOs, mission field exposure, rural and urban exposure.

XIII. FACILITIES

1. Library & Archives

ATC Library has extensive collection of books, journals, dictionaries and commentaries. The library has access to e-libraries for students and researchers. It also has mutual understanding with libraries of other institutions, such as Mizoram University, which provide wider access for gathering study/research materials for the students. The Archives contain rare and valuable documents which are intensively utilized by students and researchers, not only from ATC, but also by scholars and researchers from other theological colleges and from secular fields.

2. Chapel

During the academic session morning devotion is conducted in the Chapel from 9:00 a.m. to 9:20 a.m. from Monday to Friday. The morning devotions are primarily meant for students and faculty members, except Thursday morning when the non-teaching staff join the devotion. Sunday evening is set aside for ATC Community Worship Service for all the community members. Visitors are always welcomed to join the services organized in the Chapel throughout the week. The Chapel is also kept open for those who want to have private devotion/ reflection and prayer during daytime and in the evening.

3. Book Service

The Book Service purchase books and other reading materials from different publishers in India and abroad which the students and the faculty members need for academic purposes.

The Bookshop is run by students i/c Book Service under the guidance of one of the Faculty members, who is appointed as the Manager/Secretary of Book Service Committee. It is opened in the afternoon of Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 02:00 pm – 04:30 pm/ 03:30 pm – 04:30 pm.

4. General Store

The General Store is located right next to the main gate. Students and community members can purchase their daily household and academic needs from the General Store from Monday to Saturday.

5. Canteen

Food, tea and snacks are available for purchase in the College Canteen for students, faculty, office staff, community members and visitors from Monday to Friday.

6. Biblical Garden

The Biblical Garden provides ecological beauty and peace and it is a place for rest, prayer and contemplation. Prayer Mount and Zoram Galilee are located inside the Biblical Garden. Zoram Galilee is modelled after the Lake of Galilee in Palestine and it is one of the main attractions for visitors where they can visualize the ministry of Jesus in and around Galilee.

7. House of Prayer

At the top of the Biblical Garden, there is a 'House of Prayer' called Beth-Tepilah in Hebrew. Here the college community members and visitors from within and outside Mizoram engage in devotion and meditation, and gain spiritual nourishment.

8. Museum and Art Gallery

The College is developing a museum, housing articles of historic and cultural interest.

XVI. SPONSORSHIP

Synod sponsorship is the official approval and recommendation granted by the Synod Theological Education Board (TEB) to students who are undertaking different levels of theological studies.

I. Types of Synod Sponsorship

1) Deputational Sponsorship: Granted to permanent Synod workers who are officially deputed to undertake theological studies.

2) Sponsorship with Financial Support: Granted to candidates, other than deputed Synod workers, who are undertaking theological studies at colleges or seminaries affiliated to the Senate of Serampore College.

3) Sponsorship without Financial Support: Granted to candidates pursuing theological studies without financial support from the Synod. Permanent Synod workers, who wish to undertake theological studies at their own expense may also apply for this categroy of sponsorship.

II. Categories of Sponsorship

1) Deputational Financial Support: Permanent Synod workers who are deputed by the Synod shall be entitled to receive their salaries and other financial assistance in accordance with the Synod Service Rules.

2) Maximum Scholarship (Category I): This scholarship shall cover all college and Senate fees. Married students residing in family quarters shall pay their electricity, water, and waste management expenses at their own expenses.

3) Medium Scholarship (Category II): This scholarship shall cover college fees, such as registration, tuition, examination, sports, magazine and association, hostel fees excluding mess fee. Married students residing in family quarters shall pay their electricity, water, and waste management expenses at their own expenses.

4) Minimum Scholarship (Category III): This scholarship shall cover all compulsory college fees exlucluding Mess fee and Senate fee. It is applicable only to single students who are staying in the hostel.

III. Conditions for Sponsorship

1. Financial support for deputed Synod workers shall be awarded by the TEB after considering the candidates' academic records, character, and the needs of the Church.

2. The various categories of scholarship shall be awarded at the discretion of the TEB.

3. For the continuation of any scholarship in subsequent years of study, scholarship recipients shall maintain at least a Grade B average, and the confidential reports received from their respective colleges shall be satisfactory.

4. Synod sponsorship and financial support granted to any candidate may be withdrawn at any time during the course of studies if the candidate fails to comply with the standards and directives of the TEB.

5. Candidates who have not been granted Synod sponsorship for a particular course of study may apply for Synod sponsorship for another course of theological study.

Applicants seeking Synod scholarships must declare whether they are receiving any other financial sponsorship.

6. Students who have completed one year or more of a particular course of study without financial support from the Synod will not be entertained for Synod financial support. However, special consideration can be made by the TEB in extraordinary cases.

7. Candidates receiving minimum or medium scholarship may apply to the TEB for a higher category of scholarship after completing one year or more of theological studies. Applicants shall provide sufficient justification for their request. The TEB, after due consideration, may approve or decline the application.
